We played professional women's football this past summer

Melissa Dykeman and Andreane L'Ecuyer, from the Concordian women's rugby team, played professional football for the Montreal Blitz this past summer.

The Montreal Blitz is the lone Canadian entry in Independent Women's Football League (IWFL). The IWFL was founded by the women of the Austin Outlaws in 2000. The League is comprised of 13 teams divided in two divisions: East and West. Melissa, Andreane and the rest of the Blitz finished the season with a 5-3 win loss record.

Shuffle 2002

The Concordia Shuffle is a walk, run or roller-blade fundraiser which runs between Concordia's two campuses to help raise money to fund scholarships and bursaries for Concordia students. Over the last twelve years, the shuffle has raised close to $575,000.

In 2001, 22 undergraduate shuffle entrance scholarships and 3 graduate school scholarships were awarded to Concordia students.

The fun starts Friday September 27, 2002 at the park on the corner of Guy & De Maisonneuve, at 1 p.m. sharp and will end at the Loyola Campus. With a variety of activities. for more info

Concordia Athletes of the Week

Anna Bediako of the women's rugby team and Etienne Bouchard-Claissse of the men's rugby team have been named Concordia Stinger athletes of the week for the period ending Sept. 22.

Bediako, a first year back, had four tries and in two games over the weekend. The 19 year-old scored three tries in the 31-0 victory over the Ottawa Gee-Gees on Wednesday and had one try in the 49-0 win over the Université de Sherbrooke Vert et Or. A native of Montreal, Bediako is in the Exercise Science program.

Bouchard-Claissse led the Stingers to a 49-0 victory over the ETS Piranhas. The 19 year-old center scored three tries in the win. Bouchard-Claissse, a native of Montreal, is a Civil Engineering student at Concordia.
